CLUB NEWS

UPCOMING EVENTS

Today we extend a Warm Wanderers Welcome to our visitors Beddau RFC, all present will be hoping for another Sunny Day like last week? After the exploits of the Championship Cup, where both sides claimed comfortable victories against Treorchy and Mountain Ash, focus for the coming weeks is straight back on the League .

Beddau have had a winning start to the season having won 6 out of 6 thus far and sit on Top of the League. The home side, however are only 6 points adrift in 3rd position, so it's a real Top of the Table clash. This encounter, during the last few seasons, has produced wins for both sides. The recent pattern has been for the Home side to take the spoils but last season Beddau did the double. A one score Win at home followed by a last minute drop goal Win at the Memorial Ground.

The coaching team and squad will be extremely satisfied with scoring 11 tries last week together with giving the whole squad valuable game time. There were a couple of "Stars" back from Injury and a few Up and Coming "Stars" of the future on display perhaps?

It will certainly be a game of fine margins today. Question is, who will capitalize on their positive play, total commitment and a desire to get the Right Result.

Today we see the return of "Coxy" , Ned Bennett and our Skipper Josh Male One positional tweak sees four try man, AJ slot into the centre position. Our Healthy Squad means that we have a very strong Athletic side selected for today. St Albans are the visitors, who were well beaten by us a few weeks ago.

A great Bonfire Night was had by all at the club last night. Once again the volunteers from the Club set the place "alight", thanks go to the Juniors/Girls/Minis sections and others for their efforts.
